DEATHS.

Allene Roberts, the bright and attractive little daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Roberts, died Sunday morning at the home on the Extension of High street. The funeral will take place this morning at 10:30 o'clock, conducted by Elder Carey E. Morgan. The pallbearers will be her little neighbors and playmates, the Misses Louise Kenny, Patsy Clark, Clara Chambers, Ruth Chambers.

Dr. Dillard S. Price, one of the most prominent men in Winchester, aged 78 years, died Saturday morning at his home on Lexington avenue, in that city. He is survived by a wife, three sons, Sterling, Will and Charlton, and three daughters, Gertrude, Evelyn and Kate. He was a brother of Mrs. Evelyn Buck, of this city.

Mrs. Martha Clay Davenport passed away Friday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Catesby Woodford, after a long illness, the immediate cause of her death, however, being pneumonia. She had been confined to her bed for about a year from the effects of a fall she received, breaking her hip bone which was slow in healing.

Mrs. Davenport was in her seventysixth year and was the daughter of the late Hon. Brutus J. Clay, of Bourbon, who represented the Ashland district in Congress before the war and a sister of Col. E. F. Clay and Hon. C. M. Clay, of this county. She was a woman of unusual intellectual attainments. For many years she had been a consistent member of the Presbyterian church. She was a noble Christian woman.

She is survived by three sons, Junius C. Davenport, a banker of Roanoke, Va.; Henry Davenport, a prominent attorney of Clay Court House, W. Va.; Ezekiel C. Davenport, civil engineer of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad system, with headquarters in Baltimore; and one daughter, Mrs. Catesby Woodford, of Bourbon. The funeral services were conducted from the residence Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford, assisted by the Rev. Joseph S. Malone.

The body was taken to Charlestown, W. Va., for interment, leaving here with the funeral party on the 3:30 Louisville & Nashville train, Sunday afternoon.

A China Shower.

One of the happiest events of the season brought out the ladies in response to the following unique invitation:

The loyal Presbyterian clan
Has hit upon a cheerful plan,
For collecting many a dish and pan.
So wont you come and bring with you,
A plate, a cup, a bowl for stew,
A dish mop—anything will do.
Next Friday's the reception day,
The hostess, Mrs. J. Frank Clay,
414 Pleasant street. 3 to 5 p. m.

The hostess was most cordial and received in her usual happy way. Beautiful maidens and charming young matrons in the receiving line met the guests in the parlor. Passing into the library the tables loaded with China and glassware told how generally all had responded.

The dining room, was a bower of beauty—cut glass, silver, roses and carnations regaled the senses, while lovely misses flitted to and fro dispensing refreshments, and everybody was feeling happy. The following poem was read:

To those whose minds conceived the plan
By which a Presbyterian clan
Could gather together such a lot,
Dishes, pans, cups, coffee pots,
We render praise.

You've wisely culled from all the ways
With which from immemorial days
We've racked our brain—

To reach a place where all could feel
For giving, a religious zeal.

You surely have contrived the way
For each and every one to say,
"With pleasure I my gift do bring,
Accept this simple offering
In His Dear Name."

Each nail that's driven in a wall
Fills its own place however small.
Long life unto this loyal clan!

They stand shoulder to shoulder, man
to man,
When a thing's to be done they just go and do it,
Without fuss or feathers or foolishness to it.
And they always come at you in such a nice way.

That we learned long ago to graciously say,
Like the old coon of ancient renown,
"Don't shoot Mr. Crockett, just wait, I'll come down."

Resolutions.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE OF THE ANCIENT ORDER OF HIBERNIANS ON THE DEATH OF P. I. McCARTHY.

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father, in His infinite wisdom, has called from our midst Brother P. I. McCarthy, who died on May 21st, at St. Joseph's Hospital, in Lexington, Ky. Be it therefore,

Resolved That the Paris Division No. 1 of the A. O. H., while bowing in resignation to the decrees of Providence, do sincerely deplore the death of our distinguished brother at the very summit of his usefulness, and that the loss we have sustained we know to be irreparable, for as a public-spirited citizen, a worthy Hibernian, a loyal Catholic, and a faithful friend, he exemplified by his daily walk the cardinal principles of our order, viz: Friendship, Unity and Christian Charity. Be it further

Resolved, That our Order, appreciative of his high attainments and natural endowments, do hereby take cognizance of and try to emulate his noble qualities of head and heart, and that the zeal he exhibited, as County President, should be to us an inspiration to carry out his ideals.

Resolved, That we tender his devoted wife, bereft children and loving kindred our heartfelt sympathy and sincere condolence in this sad hour of their deep sorrow, and as a token of our respect to his memory that the Order wear the customary badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That the Order do hereby express its full appreciation of the kindness and attention of his business associates in all their ministrations to him and his during his illness and in attending his funeral. Be it further

Resolved, That we pay this tribute to his memory by stating that he was inferior to no man in this community in the mental strength that addresses itself to the judgment, in the shining talents that captivate and lead the minds of men, in the many virtues that win our enduring affection, or any of the graces that fascinate and charm. Be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the record book of this division, and copies of same be sent to his family, to each of the county papers, to the National Hibernian and to the Kentucky Irish American.

E H GOREY, Com.

IN MEMORIAM.

On May 21, 1908, at St. Joseph Hospital in the city of Lexington, Kentucky, there passed to his eternal rest his brother Elks, desire to express, with heartfelt feeling, the deep sense of personal loss which we realize and sustain. He had not been in very good health for some months past, but his demise was a severe shock to the officers and members of this lodge and to his many other friends, which include practically the whole community.

We, his brother Elks, desire to express, with heartfelt feeling, the deep sense of personal loss which we realize and sustain. He had not been in very good health for some months past, but his demise was a severe shock to the officers and members of this lodge and to his many other friends, which include practically the whole community.

For many years he was an active and honored member of this lodge, having filled the chair of Exalted Ruler and other offices at various times with marked ability and which reflected not only great credit upon himself but more than justified the confidence ever reposed in him. At all times he was a zealous and earnest member, one who by his broad and comprehensive knowledge, untiring efforts, wise counsel, loyalty and unselfishness gained for him that love and esteem which we so deeply feel.

He was truly a lovable character, the best and truest of friends, kind hearted, generous, sympathetic and with it all he had that broad and noble charity of thought and action, which shall ever cause us to regard him and cherish his memory, as one who was worthy of the highest tribute as a man.

With all the cares of a busy life, he was never so occupied, but what he had time to extend a friendly greeting to all. He had a vein of humor at all times that was a part of his nature and which added a rare charm to his personality. There is abundant testimony at hand to show that he has left behind him that "wonderful thing than tears." The love of friends without a single foe.

In the death of our brother, the Lodge has lost one of its best and most faithful members, which will be deeply realized by all; this community one of its brightest, most useful and highest type of citizens, whose labors were not in vain and whose example, influence and Christian life will be a living monument of his citizenship.

To his bereaved family, we extend our heartfelt sympathy in their great loss and the assurance that we mourn with them in the loss of one whose influence for good was felt by the entire community. It is resolved by Paris Lodge No. 373 B. P. O. Elks, that a copy of this testimonial be sent to his family and that a copy be published in the local papers.

The National Convention.

There will be 1,002 delegates in the Democratic National Convention, or 1,008 if the representatives from the Philippines are seated, says the New York World. In the Republican convention there will be 992 delegates.

This difference in number is due to Territorial representation. The Democratic convention allows six delegates each to Alaska, Arizona, District of Columbia, Hawaii, New Mexico and Porto Rico. In the Republican convention only Alaska, New Mexico and Arizona are allowed six delegates. The others, including the Philippines, have two each. In other respects the basis of representation is the same—every State having two delegates for each electoral vote.

The unit in the Democratic convention is the State, in the Republican convention, the Congressional district. Hence a Democratic State convention can instruct all the delegates from that State to vote for a particular candidate. A Republican State convention can instruct only the four delegates-at-large, and each Congressional district can instruct its own two delegates as it pleases. Democratic national convention recognize the unit rule, by which when so authorized by a State convention, a majority of the delegates from that State can vote the entire delegation as a unit. Thus forty delegates from New York can cast New York's seventy-eight votes. Republican national conventions do not recognize the unit rule. The vote of every delegate is counted.

In a Democratic national convention the votes of two-thirds of the delegates are necessary to nominate a candidate.

In a Republican convention a majority nominates.

The two-third rule was adopted by the first Democratic national convention held in 1832 in order to give a semblance of unanimity in the nomination Van of Buren for Vice President. Polk's supporter's revived it in 1844 in order to defeat Van Buren's renomination for Presid'ent. The rule has been adhered to in every Democratic convention since that time. Its purpose is often defeated however, by the unit rule, which makes it actually possible for a little more than one-third of the delegates to nominate the candidates through the simple process of allowing a majority of one in each State delegation to vote the minority.

Thus a Republican national convention may be more representative and more democratic than a Democratic convention.

The national convention is the most distinctly original American contribution to the art of government. It is a product of evolution and with as no legal status.

The men who framed the Constitution made no provision for nominating candidates, and, in fact, had never heard of nominations. It was their intention that the electors should choose the President uninfluenced by popular passion of prejudice. There were no parties or party organizations, and everything was left to the wisdom of the electors, who were to be chosen by the State in whatever manner the States pleased.

Before Washington's administration had ended two parties had formed, and nominating machinery was soon provided in a Congressional caucus, by which the Congressmen of each party selected the candidate and the electors ratified this selection. Thus the legislative department virtually chose the executive in spite of all constitutional precautions to keep the departments independent.

The Congressional caucus lasted until 1824, when the Jackson men bolted the nomination of Crawford. The overthrow of "King Caucus" was popularly regarded as the greatest political reform since the establishment of the Republic.

The early national conventions were hardly more than conferences, the first having been held in 1831 by supporters of Clay. There are thousands of men still living who were on their way to manhood before the national convention became an established political institution, with no laws except its own laws, with no power except voluntary consent, yet as effective in enforcing its decrees as the Government of the United States or the government of any other nation. Indeed, more so, for while government is forever flouted, there is no case on record in which a Presidential elector ever refused to vote for the candidate nominated by the national convention of his party.

ShameUpon the Republican Party

In the House of Representatives John Sharp Williams, the Democratic leader, issued a challenge to Mr. Payne, the Republican leader. Shaking his forefinger at Mr. Payne, Mr. Williams said: "Here I stand to challenge you that every dollar that goes into a campaign fund shall be published to the world the day after it is received so that the world may know the motive of the giver and may judge the means of corruption in the hands of the recipient." Referring to this incident, Henry Watterson, writing in the Louisville Courier-Journal, says:

"The silence that followed could be heard three thousand miles. It would be heard from Buzzards' Bay to Crator Lake—from the Dome of the Capitol on the Potomac to the Lick Observatory in Santa Clara Valley—as Mr. Payne, tired of leading the majority, sank helplessly into the abyss of confession, daring not to accept the challenge. That single passage tells the whole story. 'Never mind the past,' said Mr. Williams, 'The Presidential rape of 1876; the crisp new two dollar bills and blocks of five, of 1880; Belshazzar's feast, in 1884; the wholesale bribery and spoliation of 1886 and 1900 and 1904, when widows and orphans were plundered to make a McKinley and Roosevelt holiday! Never mind the denials and the proof of guilt! Never mind the stealing, the lying and the hypocrisy that have been. Let bygones be bygones! What do you say to the future? What will you do?' And poor Payne could utter never a word. Nor, in all that house full of Republicans was there one voice brave enough, one heart honest enough, to shout back in defiance—to call Mr. Williams' hand—We will pass the publicity bill here and now! Shame upon the Republican party; shame upon its leaders; shame, shame, shame!"

State Rights and Home Rule.

Napoleon used to say that one bad general is better than two good ones. A good many people in this country seem to think that one bad government is better than forty-six good ones. But the Democratic theory is that forty-six common home-made governments are better than one absolute central government, be it good or bad.

Of Interest To Women.

To such women as are not seriously out of health but who have exacting duties to perform, either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions which seriously tax their strength, as well as to nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nervine. By its timely use, much serious sickness and suffering may be avoided. The operating table and the surgeon's knife, would it is believed, seldom have to be employed if this most valuable woman's remedy were resorted to in good time. The "Favorite Prescription" has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless.

Bear in mind, please that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse, because of the uncertainty as to their composition and harmless character, but is a MEDICINE OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its make-up. In this connection it may not be out of place to state that the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, and sold through druggists, all the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended.

A little book of these endorsements will be sent to any address, post-paid, and also, free, if you request same by postal card, or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Aimed at the South.

By a strict party vote of 160 to 125, a campaign contribution publicity bill, with an amendment providing for a redaction for representation in the House of the Southern States, was passed Friday in the Lower House of Congress. The Democrats voted against the bill because of the amendment.

In the opinion of Mr. Rucker, of Missouri, if anything were wanting to demonstrate to every man in the United States that the leaders and managers of the Republican party in the House were guilty of deceit and false pretense, the bill under discussion supplied that want.

"It is horse play," remarked Mr. Hardwick, of Georgia. Reduction in representation, he said, had no terrors for the South. The Republicans, he asserted, need not deceive themselves on that proposition.

"Heavy as is the price," he exclaimed, "unfair and unjust as he believed it would be to exact this pound of flesh, yet if the people of America ever do require it they will find that the South will pay it for the protection of its homes and for the preservation of its white civilization."

Mr. Gillispie, of Texas, warned the House that by passing the bill the condition of the negro would be made worse than at present. Mr. Williams, of Mississippi, made a vigorous speech against it.

"The great old party," he began, "has resolved itself into a vaudeville stock company." He charged the Republicans with not daring to face any great public question in a fair and straightforward way by combining several propositions in one bill.

"What are you trying to do?" he inquired. "Does the gentleman from Indiana think he can turn the hands of the clock of time back half a century? Does he think he can produce the days of the carpet bagger and reconstruction in the South once more? Does he think the business interests of the North will stand for a recurrence of the saturnalia?"

The reduction in representation amendment, he declared, had been added to defeat the publicity bill. "You have no idea of reducing the representation of California, Massachusetts or Connecticut because they disfranchise illiteracy." The people of the South, he asserted, were willing to take the issue. If, he said, it was desired to ignore the fifteenth amendment and the Republicans were willing to restore to Mississippi the power to fix her suffrage along radical lines, the people of that State were ready for the gauntlet.

"Throw it down whenever you please," he exclaimed, "as to the reduction of our representation in Congress," he said, "in God's name take it at welcome to it; but be honest when you do it."

Discussing the publicity feature of the bill Mr. Williams declared that if that proposition should become law, "it will damn your Republican party and be worse for you than the force bill, which defeated Harrison." It was all false pretenses, he declared, and he said to the Republicans:

"Like children you are playing with fire in a powder magazine." He closed by asking the Republicans if they were "fools enough to believe that the South would ever again submit to the policies to which she submitted when she was weak and helpless."

Warned Not to Work Negroes.

Carter C. Neale, contractor, of Verailles, who is engaged in rebuilding and repairing the turnpike road in Woodford county, received an anonymous communication, postmarked Frankfort, Ky., and signed "Night Riders," warning him to stop working colored men at his crusher or at any other employment. He was notified that unless he discharged every negro in his employ within ten days he and the negroes would "be striped till their hides won't hold corn shucks" and "hell will be to pay." Other employers of negro labor in Woodford county recently received similar letters from Frankfort. Mr. Neale paid no attention to the letter and expects to continue to employ his present force.

No Need of Suffering from Rheumatism.

It is a mistake to allow rheumatism to become chronic, as the pain can always be relieved, and in most cases a cure effected by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes sleep and rest possible. Even in cases of long standing this liniment should be used on account of the relief which it affords. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by W. T. Brooks. "You need no other guarantee." June

Jesse P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world. Sold under guarantee at Oberdorfer's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. June

Badly Sprained Ankle Cured.

Three years ago our daughter sprained her ankle and had been suffering terribly for two days and nights—had not slept a minute. Mr. Stallings, of Butler, Tenn., told us of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. We went to the store that night and got a bottle of it and bathed her ankle two or three times and she went to sleep and had a good night's rest. The next morning she was much better and in a short time could walk around and had no more trouble with her ankle.—E. M. BRUMITT, Hampton, Tenn. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by W. T. Brooks. ### "DO IT TO-DAY!"

"And to think that ten months ago I looked like this! I owe it to German Syrup."

"The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it TO-DAY—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

High School Commencement.

The Paris High School Commencement began Sunday night with the baccalaureate sermon at the Second Presbyterian church. The church was beautifully decorated with red and white cut flowers, the colors of the class. The large choir of young ladies, all dressed in white, with red sashes and red flowers in their hair presented a beautiful scene.

Promptly at 7:30 the class, headed by Profs. Chapman and Johnson, marched down the middle aisle and took the front seats that had been reserved. After an earnest and touching prayer and the reading of the Scripture by Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford, the well-trained choir rendered several beautiful selections.

Rev. Jos. S. Malone, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, then arose and selected the 5th verse of the 4th chapter of Proverbs for his text, "Get Wisdom," and delivered a sermon that should long be remembered by the graduating class and all present. It was forcible, practical and eloquent. It was pronounced by many present to have been one of the best baccalaureate sermons ever heard in Paris.

WHITE'S ADDITION!

VIEW OF RESIDENCE.

Including the handsome and costly residence of the late G. G. WHITE. Erected at a cost of $40,000. It is the most substantial and thoroughly modern up-to-date residence in the county, with every convenience and charming surroundings. The residence is three stories high, with a twelve-foot veranda around the entire structure. Two fine cisterns, basement under the entire house, with laundry, apartments for coal and kindling, and a furnace that heats the entire building. The entire lower floor, embracing large double parlors, dining room, halls, library and reception rooms, are finished in mahogany, with frescoed ceilings, and hand-carved mantels, with large French plate mirrors, that reach to the ceiling. The entire house is lighted with gas. Rooms on second and third floors are large and roomy, and finished in hard wood, with large presses, toilet and bath rooms. This home must be seen to be appreciated, in the magnitude of its construction, elegance of finish and convenience of modern equipment. The residence will be sold with a plot of beautiful lawn and facing on two fifty-foot streets.

On the same plot is the handsome brick stable erected by Mr. White at a cost of Eight Thousand Dollars. It will be sold upon the same terms as that of the residence. After each has been sold separately the two will then be sold as a whole, the best bid to be accepted.

LADIES ARE ESPECIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND SALE.

The entire addition has been plotted, with three new fifty-foot streets running parallel with the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, and with three intersecting streets forty-five feet wide. Sixty-four lots each sixty feet wide, and six lots each fifty feet wide with a depth of from 144 to 200 feet, each facing on a new fifty-foot street, will be sold for residence purposes. These lots are high and dry with perfect drainage. Thirty-seven and 60-100 acres adjoining will be sold in tracts of from two to five acres each for grazing or gardening purposes. This body of land has overflowed from high waters only twice in a period of twenty-five years and is very rich soil.

We propose to make this sale one of the most attractive ever offered the people of Central Kentucky. The proceeds of one lot will be given to the seven white churches of Paris, one lot free to the purchasers of lots, and one lot free to all, men or women over 21 years of age, who attend the sale and register their names. Dinner free on the grounds for everybody, while conveyances will take passengers to and from the sale.

This new addition is within three hundred yards of the Courthouse, and is only separated by Stoner creek from the rich vein of lead, zinc and copper ore that has been discovered on the Marsh farm and which is now being operated successfully, a shaft 9x12 feet having been sunk to a depth of 135 feet, from which more than five thousand tons of rich ore has been taken out. The company operating these mines are having surveyed and will shortly begin the building of a stretch of track to connect with the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, and expect to have installed by September 1 a separating plant of 100 tons daily capacity, and requiring one hundred men to operate.

The sanitary system of city sewerage passes through the property, while trains of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad stop within fifty yards of the residence. The sale will be without reserve or by-bid, and everything offered will be sold for what it brings. Persons attending the sale must register in order to participate in the drawing for the free lot, registering beginning at 8 o'clock a. m. During the hours of waiting the Elks Band will render a special musical program.

THE CAUSE OF THIS MIGHTY SLAUGHTER.

The critical moment has arrived—that is the situation—here now. The recent stringency of the money market has created a condition which has never occurred before. Circumstances have so shaped themselves that we are forced to slaughter our magnificent stock. We must raise money at all hazards. Our entire capital is tied up in merchandise. We therefore need relief. Heroic sacrifices are sometimes necessary. This is one of the times. We meet the situation promptly and emphatically. The urgent demand for money brought this gigantic money raising sale on Twin Brothers at Paris, which we pass along to you. The enormity of our stock, the vital danger and burden it applies at this critical financial stagnation forces us to reduce stock. Notwithstanding our reputation as givers of best values, we now give an extra twirl to the wheels of trade by offering such astonishing values that competition is not even attempted. It is not necessary to go into details relative to the high class merchandise we carry, for every man, woman and child in Bourbon County and vicinity is well aware of the fact that anything bought from Twin Brothers was the best that money can buy. Come and see for yourselves and be convinced.

Paris Rank Attends Memorial.

A. J. Lovely Commandery Uniform Bank Knights of Pythias, of this city, went to Cynthiana Sunday to attend the K. of P. memorial exercises in that city. Capt. F. M. Faries left with his company at one o'clock on a special train.

Several thousand people attended the exercises, which took place at Battle Grove cemetery. About eight companies of K. of P.'s took part in the parade. The K. of P. band, of North Middletown, accompanied the Paris commandery.

Bess is a nephew of James Bess, who was hanged at Lexington for the murder of his paramour. Bess has been arrested and taken to the Brooksville jail.

Desperadoes Attempt Suicide.

Alan Creech, who is on trial at Jackson for murder, and Beech Hargis, whose case was set for yesterday, attempted suicide in their cells at jail by swallowing a large quantity of whisky and morphine. Creech also obtained a razor and tried to cut his throat. Creech was taken into court a raving maniac from the effects of the drug and was strapped to a cot during the progress of the argument.

Bourbon Wins Championship.

Thos. Henry Clay, Jr., of this county, won the amateur championship in the Kentucky Trap Shooters' League, Thursday, at the Northern Kentucky Gun Club grounds, near Newport. He broke 96 birds out of a possible 100, and divided high average money for the two days' shoot with Walter Henderson, of Louisville each making 37.8.

LIVE STOCK AND CROP NOTES

Bourbon farmers have at last been able to complete planting corn. There may be a few exceptions. In some sections of the county corn can be seen above the ground.

W. A. Thomason bought last week of different parties six work mules at from $175 to $200. While considerable trading has been done in mule lots, buyers are not disposed to pay the high prices prevailing one year ago with the result that a decline is noted.

Considering the lateness with which the hemp crop was seeded, the growth attained is phenomenal, the great majority of the fields showing stalks of hemp from six to eighteen inches in height.

Wheat fields indicate a bumper crop, the heads of wheat being lengthy and numerous. The crop is earlier by at least a week compared to that of last year, and will be ready to harvest by June 15.

From reports there will be about 500 acres of tobacco raised in Montgomery county this year. One hundred and fifty acres of plants were set last week.

Thomson, Redmon & Collins, of North Middletown, will operate thirty-five bluegrass strippers, having nearly eight thousand acres of blue grass fields in which the seed is excellent.

A Few Points Worth Consideration.

The wealth of the bluegrass is not entirely confined above the ground in the richness and fertility of its soil, in the great diversity of its crops, and in the peculiar fact that her fields are carpeted with a luxuriant growth of waving grass, but for many years it has been known among geologists that beneath the surface, running in parallel lines are great deposits of lead, zinc, copper, and barytes ore. The opening of such a mine on the Marsh farm in East Paris, which has been in progress for more than a year, has developed untold richness. As far as is known of volcanic eruptions in some remote period of the earth's growth and formation, in which seismic disturbances separated the limestone formations, and by the cooling of certain gases filled the vacuum with rich deposits of metals, that extend to the surface and make the exploration and development of such mines an easy and profitable undertaking. The certainty that the find in East Paris is going to result in operations on a large scale, with corresponding assurance of profitable returns and operations are now beyond the experimental stage. The survey for a spur connecting the mines with the Louisville & Nashville railroad to facilitate and cheapen the cost of handling 100 tons of ore per day, and the placing of a contract for the installation of a huge separating plant, requiring the labor of 100 men daily, will in the near future send the price of real estate in that section of the city skyward. The business man, the man with a small amount of money to invest, will at once take advantage of the opportunity afforded next Thursday to buy some desirable lots, and plots of from one to five acres of ground, in the new White addition, that will be thrown on the market and sold under the hammer.

This property is within one hundred yards of the shaft from which the rich ores are being taken from their long hiding place, and the lots to be sold will probably in less than a year be worth double and treble the prices now prevailing for property. The sale which will be without reserve or by bid will attract the largest crowd of buyers ever seen at a sale of real estate in Bourbon County. Watch for him.

Two Special Bargains.

I have two special bargains in building lots that will make you money. 29 2t DR. HENRY.

Blue Grass Seed Harvest.

With the weather permitting, the latter part of this week will find the harvest of blue grass seed in this section well under way. The seed this year is said to be of an excellent quality and is in great abundance. Unless the rains of the latter part of last week served to advance the growth of the weeds, the crop will be comparatively free from any of this objectionable matter which will leave the seed in a very desirable state.

Local seed men, who have large contracts for the gathering of this year's crop, have been making extensive preparations to that end, and are employing large forces of hands to gather the seed. Stuart & O'Brien, with a force of about twenty-five men and twelve strippers, left yesterday morning for Shelby county, traveling overland, and arriving there some time Wednesday, where they have contracted for several large crops of bluegrass seed.
